

Become a Organization Member to support
the SIGN LANGUAGE INSTITUTE OF CANADA (SLIC)

SLIC was established in 1981 to develop the national certification process for Sign Language Instructors/Teachers. By supporting this, you can help SLIC striving to excel in higher standards for teaching American Sign Language (ASL), language des signes québécoise (LSQ) and signed languages of the Canadian Deaf Communities across Canada.

SLIC works with Organization Members who are organizations that represents the interests of sign language instructors/teachers and endorse the objectives of SLIC.

How can SLIC effectively engage with your organization in a way that supports the sign language instructors and management of sign language services you serve and works towards SLIC objectives?

- invite your organization to participate in relevant SLIC consultations
- invite your organization to join SLIC ad hoc advisory groups
- have SLIC linked to your organization website
- invite your organization to join open letter campaigns for supporting the quality of ASL/LSQ teaching services, best practices and resources, and technology innovations as well for policy, regulation and legislative developments for professional sign language instructors/teachers title and protection
- invite SLIC to present to your organization about SLIC and your organization sign language services you represent
- highlight an issue of interest to your organization in our SLIC newsletter
- Develop partnerships to work on projects that enhance the quality of ASL/LSQ teaching services and resources

If your organization is interested in becoming an organization member, please sign up at <https://slicanada.ca/slic-membership/>
